

Health Insurance

All foreigners are required to have health insurance. Health insurance policies are checked along with other documents during the border crossing, application for admission to the University and application for residence hall accommodations.

Health insurance policies must cover the following benefits: hospitalization; emergency services; ambulatory services; emergency dental services; medical transportation; unscheduled return; repatriation of remains; obstetric care up to 29 weeks of pregnancy.