

Health Insurance

International students are required to have proper health insurance in Russia. They must present their insurance policies when crossing the Russian border, applying for admission to the University and moving into the University's residence halls.

An insurance policy must provide coverage for:

- inpatient and outpatient treatment;
- medical emergencies;
- dental treatment to alleviate pain or due to accident;
- medical transportation;
- unscheduled return;
- repatriation of remains;